

On an island in the Salish Sea a community built a library...

Islanders dreamed of a library for their community.

A generous resident donated a plot of land.

In 1962 the first ever Rotary Auction raised money to build the Bainbridge Public Library.

Over the years, friends and neighbors donated to three additional building campaigns to make our library bigger and better.

Library lovers still contribute each year to help maintain and operate our library building and grounds.

Demarest 2019

Fish Feast

Our treasure & commitment

BAINBRIDGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

To hear more of our story, visit us at: bainbridgepubliclibrary.org